"ST. NICHOLAS DAY"

Many cultures around the world celebrate December 6th as St. Nicholas' Day, the day when St. Nick brings presents and leaves them in shoes or stockings. This service will talk about some different cultural expressions around the world and also take a look at the historic St. Nicholas. And is it true that St. Nick slapped Arius, the first unitarian?

The Order of Service & the FPC Announcements will be posted on the First Parish Church of Stow & Acton Website under "Services" for download by the Friday evening before the service.

On Sunday you can go directly to the FPC Website by CLICKING the below address for the video link, phone number, Order of Service (OOS) & FPC Announcements:

CONCORD PRISON OUTREACH

Concord Prison Outreach (CPO) is a 501(c)(3) organization composed of a coalition of individuals and faith communities committed to helping people who are incarcerated build better lives for themselves and their families. Since its founding in 1968, when its first volunteers helped to support people in a local prison infirmary, CPO has developed into the largest organization of its kind in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

CPO works cooperatively with the Massachusetts Department of Correction (DOC), offering educational programs that focus on skill-building and personal growth, essentials to help support people in prison to achieve success while incarcerated or post-incarceration. Hundreds of individuals and nearly forty faith communities join CPO in its mission to offer high-quality, transformative programs that focus on education, personal growth and increased opportunity for incarcerated people and their families.

Although the current pandemic has interrupted volunteer led programs, CPO continues to provide some services, and planning future programs is ongoing.

The Holiday Gift Bag program will continue this year, thanks to many volunteers who met recently, with masks and social distancing, and filled the gift bags to be distributed during the holidays.

Two of our FPC members, Aimee Ledwell and Linda Campo are volunteering in this event.

A new program was implemented called Welcome back packs. The backpacks include items designed to help incarcerated men and women as they return to life outside the prison, and includes a list of resources to help with that transition.

My FPC: On the Side of Love

Support. Love. Caring. Generosity. Community. These are just a few terms FPCers used to describe what stewardship means during the service on generosity Sunday, November 22. These words represent what FPC means to so many of us. To keep our church strong, supporting our community, and nurturing our spirit, we ask you to make a financial commitment to FPC with a Stewardship pledge for fiscal year July 2021-June 2022.

First Parish Church is a self-sustaining congregation that relies on the generosity of us all for about 70% of our budget. We cannot do it without you! We are requesting your Stewardship pledge by December 22. If you are unable to make a financial commitment this year, just let us know.

We are grateful to have already received over 45 responses – Thank You! Watch our progress towards 100% member participation with our Participation Thermometer.

For our next fiscal year which begins in July 2021, our Board of Trustees seeks to present a budget that continues to sustain our ministries and a wide range of exciting programs. In addition, we specifically wish to:

- Provide our staff with a fair and well deserved salary increase
- Increase our support to the UUA closer to our Fair Share level, and
- Increase our Capital Fund to maintain our beautiful building

Pledging on line is easy and secure. Just click this link to our on-line Pledging page:

Giving. Nurturing. Togetherness. Responsibility. This is FPC. Let's keep the spirit alive with a financial pledge for the future. Thank you for your generosity.

In gratitude,

VIRTUAL COOKIE SWAP TUESDAY, DEC 8, 7:00PM

The FPC Cookie Swap has gone virtual this year. We are not baking cookies to share or chatting face-to-face over appetizers and drinks, but we can still gather over Zoom and share Christmas stories, poems and memories. Gather at 7pm on Tuesday December 8th - sit in a comfy chair and bring your own refreshments.

The link is below:

The Racial Justice Task force is offering a three-part workshop that we are calling “Dismantling Racism as a Spiritual Practice.”

Lisa Fagerstrom will be the facilitator, and each workshop will begin at 7 pm and be approximately 90 minutes.

The dates and topics are as follows
7:00PM ZOOM

Monday, October 26th - “Journeying Toward Spiritual Wholeness”

Monday, November 23rd- “Dismantling Racism and Other Isms in Ourselves”.

Monday, January 25th - “Dismantling Racism and Other Isms in Our Institutions”

Zoom links and details will be sent closer to each event.

We hope you will mark your calendar and join us on this journey!

Coming Soon - Green Marketplace

A New Fundraising Initiative at FPC

Within the next few weeks, FPC will launch a new, year-round fundraiser that reaches beyond our friends and family. Green Marketplace will sell good quality used items on Facebook Marketplace and eBay. These platforms allow us to reach a market that will bring in revenues to FPC from far and wide. This effort is in addition to the current FPC Marketplace, where goods are offered for free or for sale only to the FPC community. All proceeds from sales of goods will go directly to FPC to help support our operations and mission.

As we finalize establishing our eBay account and developing a web page for the FPC web site, start putting aside any items that are in new or gently used condition that you would like to donate. We would be happy to take a look at them to see if we feel they will sell. We have already raised $150 with items such as stools, pottery bowls and vases, and a Brio wooden train set.

Look for further information through FPC Announce. In the meantime, if you would like to volunteer for the committee or if you have items you would like to donate, please contact Sue Moses at susanjmoses@comcast.net.
